

be controlled. The National Students Union scheduled demonstrations at four points in northeastern Paris. The Communist-dominated General Confederation of Workers announced two marches across the southern half of the city.

In the provinces, organizations of farmers called demonstrations to show solidarity with the workers and students—and to demand that the government protect them in coming price negotiations with the other Common Market countries.

There was a strong possibility that the marching demonstrators would have Paris in an uproar by the time De Gaulle spoke on television and the radio.

The 77-year-old president gave no advance indication of what he would say in his first public statement on the two-week-old upheaval that has paralyzed French business, industrial and educational life.

Political observers believed he would call a referendum next month to endorse a program of wide reform, including greater participation of the people in the government, of the workers in running their factories, and of the students in the operation of their universities and high schools.

Whether this would satisfy workers demanding higher wages, earlier retirement, job security and other bread-and-butter benefits was an unanswered question. Promises from Premier Georges Pompidou of sweeping educational reforms have had no effect on the rebellious students.

With an estimated 50 to 60 per cent of France's 16 million workers on strikes, there were no important cracks in the labor front. And the students at the Sorbonne, after a week of peaceful sit-ins, charged back in to the streets Wednesday night when they learned that the government planned to bar firebrand student leader Daniel "Danny the Red" Cohn-Bendit from France after a speaking tour in Holland and Germany.

Wednesday night they tried to storm the National Assembly and Senate buildings and set street barricades afire in the Latin Quarter. Thursday night they surged for most of the night through the Quarter and the streets of the Ile de la Cite around Notre Dame, and spilled over onto the Right Bank around Les Halles, the big central market.

Presbyterians Favorable to Merger

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Southern Presbyterians in the U.S. Synod of Texas voted favorably on a merger request Thursday.

The request from the Synod of Louisiana asked that a restructure plan be studied that would merge that synod with those of Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Commissioners also unanimously adopted a number of resolutions aimed at discrimination and urged their churches to admit persons to membership without reference to race.

Ex-Editor of Gazette Is Suicide

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mrs. Mildred Saunders Woods, former of the Arkansas Gazette, was found dead Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George F. Bartsch, Mrs. Woods was 61.

Mrs. Woods served as an editor on the Gazette staff from 1949 until 1965 when she retired.

Police said Mrs. Woods died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

State Girls Schools Desegregated

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The newly created Arkansas Juvenile Training School Board, in a 3-2 split, decided Thursday to play all girls in the previously all-white Girls Training School at Alexander and close the one at Fargo that had been used for Negro girls.

The vote to merge the two schools came in accordance with the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals' decision that the facilities must be desegregated.

One of the two opposing the decision was Dr. D. J. Webster, a Negro minister from North Little Rock.

Webster, the board chairman, said he thought the action was "too hasty."

Webster said he preferred to let Paul E. Shipley become acquainted with the program before reaching a decision on the matter.

Shipley, 36, superintendent of Lewisville schools, had been named earlier in the day as executive director of the Juvenile Training Schools Department.

Also opposing the merger was Marion Ward of Little Rock who said there had not been enough evaluation made to begin "throwing the girls together."

"You can't do a human life that way," Ward said, adding that there wasn't enough room at Alexander for adequate protection or training.

There are 95 girls at the Fargo school and 68 at Alexander. The board also adopted a reception and classification plan devised by the Arkansas Rehabilitation Service.

The plan, which will be submitted to U.S. District Court, calls for segregation by sex only with the girls being assigned to Alexander and the boys to schools at Pine Bluff and Wrightsville.

The immediate plan would call for evaluation teams to screen each of the 550 children in the four schools.

"About 90 per cent of the girls at Fargo shouldn't be there in the first place," said Jess Reeves of Pine Bluff. He said many were placed in the school because no one in their family cared for them.

Reeves also said many of the children should be sent to foster homes and the mentally retarded to the Arkansas Children's Colony at Conway.

The board also decided to stop allowing the Negro boys at the Wrightsville school to work for farmers in the area.

Supt. R. E. Hemphill said the boys had been allowed to work to earn money during the cotton chopping and harvesting seasons.

The board said the primary function of the school was educational and that any future work training program would be closely supervised with an objective to train the students.

tentary with the remainder going into the general revenue account.

The House defeated the tax proposal once during the 1967 regular session and twice during the special session last February. The other defeat in the lower chamber came last February when a third such proposal died in committee.

Opponents of the bill called it "obnoxious" and said it would not produce enough revenue to pay the cost of administering it.

The tax, which was administered by the federal government until this year, would produce about $500,000 a year, administration sources had said.

The House approved 87-0 the bill giving the Racing Commission power to revoke an existing dog track franchise or refuse to grant a new one if it determines that any officer, director or principal stockholder "is of undesirable personal background."

The bill, included in the call at the Legislative Council's request, came in the wake of recent charges that a New York "syndicate" was attempting to take over the track at West Memphis.

Friday, May 24, 1968

The House also defeated 35-43 a bill that would have removed the compulsory requirement that all calves be vaccinated against brucellosis. The measure would have left such vaccinations to the discretion of the state veterinarian.

The Senate passed the $5 million investment bill by a 29-2 vote. The other two measures to pass, both coming from the House, authorized improvement districts to levy a tax for maintenance (30-0) and clarified income tax regulations (24-7).

The upper chamber bickered over those measures, making it clear the members weren't in any mood to tackle the more controversial legislation pending.

The Senate showed enthusiasm only on resolutions praising Sen. J. Lee Bearden of Leachville, who is retiring after 28 years in the legislature, and one praising Arkansas State University students for their rescue and cleanup work in the aftermath of the May 14 tornado at Jonesboro.

HELEN HELP US!
by Helen Bottel

JUST TWO AND ONE-HALF BIG HAPPY FAMILIES

Dear Helen: I loved my husband, but I thought I loved this married man more, so I got a divorce. Shortly afterwards, my husband married a friend of mine. We all get along well. They took the children because I was single and working, but I can have them to visit any time I wish.

The problem is, I've been drifting along for six years now, waiting for Ken (the married man) to get a divorce as he promised.

Several times he has left Myra, his wife, and moved in with me, but she is so kind and understanding about it that he moves back. I can't get tough, because Myra and I are good friends too. Whenever there's a crisis with their children, she calls me first. She doesn't mind sharing him with me, and often she seems acceptable to the divorce, but somehow it just never happens.

All of us are in the same crowd and get together quite often, to play poker. We're being very modern and sensible, but where does this leave me?

—AMiable DIVORCEE
Dear A.D.: Up a creek with no husband! And liable to stay that way unless you pull out of this friendly livesome and develop some old-fashioned sense. A good poker player should know that with two pairs, there's one discard—YOU!—H.

Dear Helen: My cousin has six of the most undisciplined kids I've ever seen. If treats are set out, they'll stand over the dish, eating so fast they slobber. When full, they sling the rest at each other, or rub it into the furniture.

They open the fridge door every few minutes and poke dirty fingers into everything they see. They dig into cupboards, climb all over sofas and beds with their muddy feet, demand food that is out of reach and scream if they don't get it. What they don't eat, they break.

I don't blame the kids as much as I do their parents. We don't visit their house because of its sour milk smells and messiness. But here's the problem: I guess I must have shown my displeasure, for now my cousins hardly ever come over and, when they do, things are strained. Why do I feel so guilty when I used to dread their constant visits? Should I apologize for scolding the children and risk having them back three or four times a week, or pretend I haven't noticed the freeze?—GUILTY BUT GLAD

Dear G. but G: Don't ruin a good thing: Pretend you haven't noticed, and let guilt rest on the guilty.—H.

AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The summit meeting of two film immortals took place one recent evening in the sumptuous salon of George Cukor, the director.

The principals: Greta Garbo and Mae West.

Miss Garbo had surprised her longtime friend and director by expressing a desire to meet Miss West. Cukor arranged a dinner.

Garbo, always prompt, arrived first. Miss West, who dearly loves an entrance, came later. She disarmed Garbo at once by greeting her with a "Hello, dear" and a Hollywood-style kiss on the cheek.

"From that moment on, they got along famously," says Cukor. "Garbo wanted to know about Mae's muscle-men, and Mae explained that this one and that one were infatuated with her."

Miss Garbo was unavailable for comment. But Miss West said she enjoyed the evening.

"Well, she said that she loved my pictures, and I said the same about hers," Mae recounted. "I said to her, 'You know, you really ought to make another picture—you look great.' She said, 'I dunno; I'll think it over.'"

The meeting with Garbo was another event in the recent renaissance of Mae West, who has had an amazing number of careers in her 74 years. The most recent one when she was persuaded by Cukor and Robert Wise to accept honorary membership in the film fraternity at the University of Southern California.

Mae not only showed up, she reminisced about her sensation-filled career with the two directors, then performed part of her night club act. The appearance sparked Wise to propose a television special, which producer Stanley Musgrove is now preparing for Wise's company and Universal. Now there is talk that Jim Aubrey and Hunt Stromberg Jr. will produce for Warner Brothers-Seven Arts a film version of a West play, "Sextet," starring Mae. It would be her first film since "The Heat's On," 25 years ago.

Why has she been off the screen so long? "Well, it wasn't because I didn't have offers," she remarked. "I just couldn't find anything I wanted to do. Also there were years when my inproach is obvious flattery, but harmless. If it really bugs you, give the poor fellow a "pat on the head" smile and call him "sonny."—H.

come tax was such that I would have ended up working for the government.

"And I was busy doing plays and night clubs. The rest of the time I spent getting some writing done. Now I've finished the writing, and I want to do some work while I still look the way I do."

The way she looks is remarkable. The eyes still sparkle with "Come up and see me sometime" sauciness, and the face is smooth. The figure is ample, but then, didn't Mae set the well-padded style in the early 1930s, eliminating the scrawny, flapper look? Not for nothing did the British in wartime name their inflated life preservers "Mae Wests."

A pioneer in censor-baiting, she is amused by today's license in entertainment content. Both on the stage and in films, she bore the brunt of moralists' tirades. She was even attacked by religionists for her spicyness version of Adam and Eve with Edgar Bergen's Charlie McCarthy on radio.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The first hurricane of the year, yet un-

She isn't expected until after June 1 when the hurricane season officially begins, but the weather watchers at Miami's hurricane center decided they would be ready with her name and names for her 22 sisters.

Brenda and Candy will follow Abby.

Then will come Dolly, Edna, Frances, Gladys and Hannah, which is as far as the names went last year as Heidi ended the hurricane season off the coast of Ireland.

Films About Spock Shown to the Jury

By WILLIAM F. NICHOLSON
Associated Press Writer
BOSTON (AP)—Television films of Dr. Benjamin Spock standing on the steps of the Justice Department building in Washington, exhorting young men to continue resisting the draft, have been shown to a federal jury trying the pediatrician and four others on antidraft charges.

"Remember, the greatest weapon the government has is division and we must not attack each other, we must stick together," Spock was heard to say in the film of an antidraft rally last Oct. 20.

Also seen and heard in the films projected Thursday was another defendant, Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin Jr., 43.

On trial with the 65-year-old baby doctor and Coffin are Mitchell Goodman, 44, a New York writer and teacher; Marcus Raskin, 39, a Washington research director; and Michael Ferber, 23, a graduate student at Harvard. All are charged with conspiring to counsel, aid and abet young Americans to evade and avoid the draft.

The first railroad passenger and freight station in the United States was opened in Baltimore, Md.

AFL Players Threaten Club Owners

NEW YORK (AP) — Faced with a "no contract, no football" threat from their veteran players, National Football League clubowners were to present their side of the economic picture at a news conference today.

The NFL Players' Association broke off negotiations Thursday after a meeting in which the owners refused to budge on one of the players' economic demands.

Dan Shulman, the players' lawyer, said a policy of NFL clubs not signing veterans until the current negotiations are over was "in effect, a lockout."

"There are certain positions open to us," he said. "We have to go back to the membership and ask if they are ready to take action. If they continue not signing veterans there just won't be any football."

"If they do sign veterans, then we are in the position of going back to the players and having them tell us what to do. If we get no contracts we have no choice. No football!"

Shulman listed some of the players' alternatives—not showing up for training camp, showing up for camp and then leaving, not playing exhibition games, not playing regular season games.

A league spokesman said it was "not true that there is a concerted movement" not to sign veteran players. He said many veterans have already signed, including some of the 16 player representatives who met with the owners.

A player does not have to be under contract until the regular season begins but the club must notify each player by May 1 if they intend to pick up his option—that is, make him their property for another year.

The players are asking $500 a game for preseason contests, a $5 million annual payment to their pension fund and a $15,000 minimum salary.

Shulman and John Gordy of the Detroit Lions, president of the players' association, said the owners agreed to raise the minimum salary from $7,500 to $10,000 but added this would not

Maple Leafs Add More Age to Corps

TORONTO (AP) — The goal-hungry Toronto Maple Leafs added more age to their already ancient but efficient defense corps Thursday by obtaining veteran All-Star Pierre Pilote from the Chicago Black Hawks in a surprising National Hockey League trade.

To obtain the 36-year-old Pilote, Toronto gave up right wing Jim Pappin, 28, who has played with the Leafs for parts of five seasons and was one of the stars of their 1967 Stanley Cup victory.

Pilote was named to the first All-Star team five times and to the second team three times in his 13 NHL seasons. He won the Norris Trophy as the best defenseman in the league in 1963, 1964 and 1965.

Pilote joins Toronto defensemen Allan Stanley, 42, Tim Horton, 38, and Marcel Pronovost, who will be 38 next month. Goaltender Johnny Bower is 43.

The Leafs slumped from their Stanley Cup triumph to fifth place in the NHL's East Division and missed the playoffs for the first time in 10 years. They allowed only 176 goals, second best in the entire league.

Shulman and John Gordy of the Detroit Lions, president of the players' association, said the owners agreed to raise the minimum salary from $7,500 to $10,000 but added this would not cost the clubs any money since most players now get at least $10,000.

Bobcats Blasted Out of Meet

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Fort Smith St. Anne's goes after its second straight championship tonight in the finals of the state high school baseball tournament.

St. Anne's, in its fourth straight appearance in the state tournament, will play Junction City at 7:30 p.m. for the title.

The Fort Smith school made it to the finals Thursday by taking advantage of eight errors in thrashing Hope 16-2. The game was called in the fifth inning under the 10-run rule.

Junction City pulled off the first triple play of the tournament and outslugged Arkadelphia 11-6 Thursday.

Steve Hasser, who hurled a no-hitter for St. Anne's Monday, stopped Hope on five hits to gain the victory. Mike Monroe was the loser for Hope.

Fred Davis poled a bases-loaded triple for St. Anne's in its six-run second inning.

Junction City reeled off its triple play in the third inning when it led 3-0.

With men on first and second base, Jim Hurley of Arkadelphia lined out to second baseman Donny Lowery, who threw to shortstop Rodney Barnette for the second out at second, and Barnette relayed the ball to first to complete the triple-killing.

Junction City blew the game open in the sixth with a five-run outburst.

Barnette came on in relief of starter Roger Morris to get credit for the victory. Starter Ricky Hasley absorbed the loss for Arkadelphia.

Bruce Stringer stroked a triple and double for Junction City.

The Surging Giants Thrive on Adversity

By RON SPEER Associated Press Sports Writer ATLANTA (AP)—Surging San Francisco seems to thrive on adversity.

The Giants, with their injury list climbing about as fast as their standing in the National League, bolted into first place this week despite wounds to a pair of key players.

San Francisco slipped ahead of St. Louis Thursday night with a 5-4 victory over Atlanta, which gave the Giants a 3-1 edge in their series with the Braves despite the absence of slugger Willie McCovey.

He was spiked last week and did not come to Atlanta, and third baseman Frank Johnson won't accompany the Giants to Chicago today.

Johnson suffered a fractured nose when he was hit by an infield bouncer which took a wild hop, and team officials said he probably would be out three or four weeks.

Manager Herman Franks credited Johnson's replacement, veteran Jim Davenport, with the key plays in the triumph.

Davenport moved Ron Hunt to third in the seventh inning with a single to left, starting a two-run uprising.

Albuquerque relief pitcher Dennis Aust threw only one pitch but it retired threatening Arkansas in the ninth inning and preserved a 4-3 Texas League baseball victory Thursday night.

Arkansas shortstop Frank Davanon hit Aust's only pitch to shortstop and was thrown out with an Arkansas runner stranded at third.

Albuquerque starting pitcher Charlie Hough earned the victory. He was relieved by Dick Dare as Arkansas loaded the bases in the eighth inning.

Once again Davanon was the out that ended the threat, Albuquerque center fielder Jimmy Williams threw him out at the plate after an out field fly.

Williams scored the winning run in the Albuquerque eighth inning, coming home on a squeeze bunt by shortstop Bill Grabarkewitz.

Memphis jumped to a 1-0 first inning lead over El Paso on Roy Foster's home run, but Rudy May shut the door on the Blues the rest of the way as the Sun Kings won 2-1.

El Paso tied the score in the bottom of the first on two singles and a stolen base. The winning run was scored in the sixth on a single, two wild pitches and an error.

Giants Go to Top as Cards Slip

By HAL BOCK Associated Press Sports Writer
There's nothing like a nice little winning string to give a baseball team a lift in the standings. Except, perhaps, a nice little losing streak by the guys dings. Except, perhaps, a nice little losing streak by the guys directly in front of you.

San Francisco's ambitious Giants have won eight of their last 11 games and St. Louis' cooperative Cardinals have dropped eight of their last 11. Result: A five-game pickup for the Giants and a change at the top of the National League race.

San Francisco captured first place Thursday with a 5-4 victory over Atlanta while St. Louis was losing 3-2 in 11 innings to Los Angeles in the only NL games played. New York at Philadelphia and Pittsburgh at Chicago were rained out.

In the American League, Cleveland battered California 9-2 and Chicago's game at Washington was rained out. The other teams were not scheduled.

The Giants beat the Braves for the third straight time when Marty Martinez, a substitute catcher, let one of Cecil Upshaw's pitches get away with Ron Hunt on third base in the ninth inning.

Tunt had opened the ninth with a single and reached third on a sacrifice and a ground out before scoring on the passed ball.

The Braves had rallied to tie the game in the eighth inning on Joe Torre's fourth hit of the game which drove in Hank Aaron. Aaron had tripled, scoring Tito Francona.

The Cardinals lost their seventh game in the last eight when Bob Bailey's 11th-inning single scored Willie Davis with the Dodgers' winning run.

Davis doubled opening the 11th and moved to third on a sacrifice. After Ron Fairly was intentionally walked, Tom Haller fouled out before Bailey singled.

Manager Walt Alston tempted fate in the bottom of the 11th when, with two out and the tying run on second, he ordered Orlando Cepeda intentionally walked, putting the winning run on base. The move paid off when reliever John Purdin retired Phil Gagliano on a fly ball, ending the game.

Jose Cardenal smacked two singles, a double and homer leading a 18-hit Cleveland attack that carried the Indians past California.

Cox Alvis, Tommy Harper and Jose Vidal also homered for the Indians, who moved within 1½ games of first-place Detroit.

Sonny Siebert scattered seven hits and won his sixth game. He also had a two-run single that got the Indians started in the second inning.

UCLA Star Booked on Dope Charge

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lucius Allen, star guard for UCLA's national championship basketball team, was booked with four friends Thursday night on charges of possession of marijuana, police said.

Police Sgt. John Colella said officers detected the odor of marijuana after halting their speeding car in an alley in central Los Angeles.

It was one year to the day that Allen was arrested at his West Los Angeles apartment and charged with possession of marijuana, a charge which was later dropped.

Booked with Allen were Melvin Martin, Alla L. Bullen, Bonnie Jean Goss and John Woolery. Police said all were UCLA students in their early 20s. Allen, 20, is a junior.

McLendon Leads Meet at Memphis

By BOB GILBERT Associated Press Sports Writer MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) —

The fans who saw B. R. McLendon sink a 20-foot eagle putt to share the first-round lead in the $100,000 Memphis Open Golf Tournament figured he was happy as a lark. But his wife, Joan, knew better.

"He didn't say anything to me, but when I saw him go to the practice tee after coming off the 18th, I knew he wasn't happy with his woods and long irons," the pretty blonde said.

McLendon, 22, who won the 1965-66-67 Southeastern Conference golf titles, came into the Memphis Open Thursday virtually unknown to the gallery.

Jim Lunn, 23, of Sacramento, Calif., shared the first-round lead with McLendon as both came in with five-under-par 65s Thursday. Lunn finished the round three hours ahead of McLendon, a late starter.

McLendon's wife is touring with him, but she didn't see his 67.

"I figure this is a day of work," he said. "A doctor doesn't take his wife to the office. But she hasn't seen guys like Arnold Palmer play. I'd like her to come out and see him."

Only one stroke off the lead going into the second round were R. H. Sikes, Dick Mayer, Jack McGowan and Larry Mowry.

Palmer, golf's all-time leading money winner, shot a 69 in what he called an uninspiring round for Army's Army to watch. Jack Nicklaus, playing with him, had a 71.

Rain Limits Driving at Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Rain, which has washed out days of practice for the Indianapolis 500-mile race and limited last Sunday's qualification runs to one, threatens the final two scheduled days of time trials.

Only 16 of the 33 starting positions for the May 30 race are filled. And drivers who weren't ready for qualifications last weekend have had little time to tune their equipment this week.

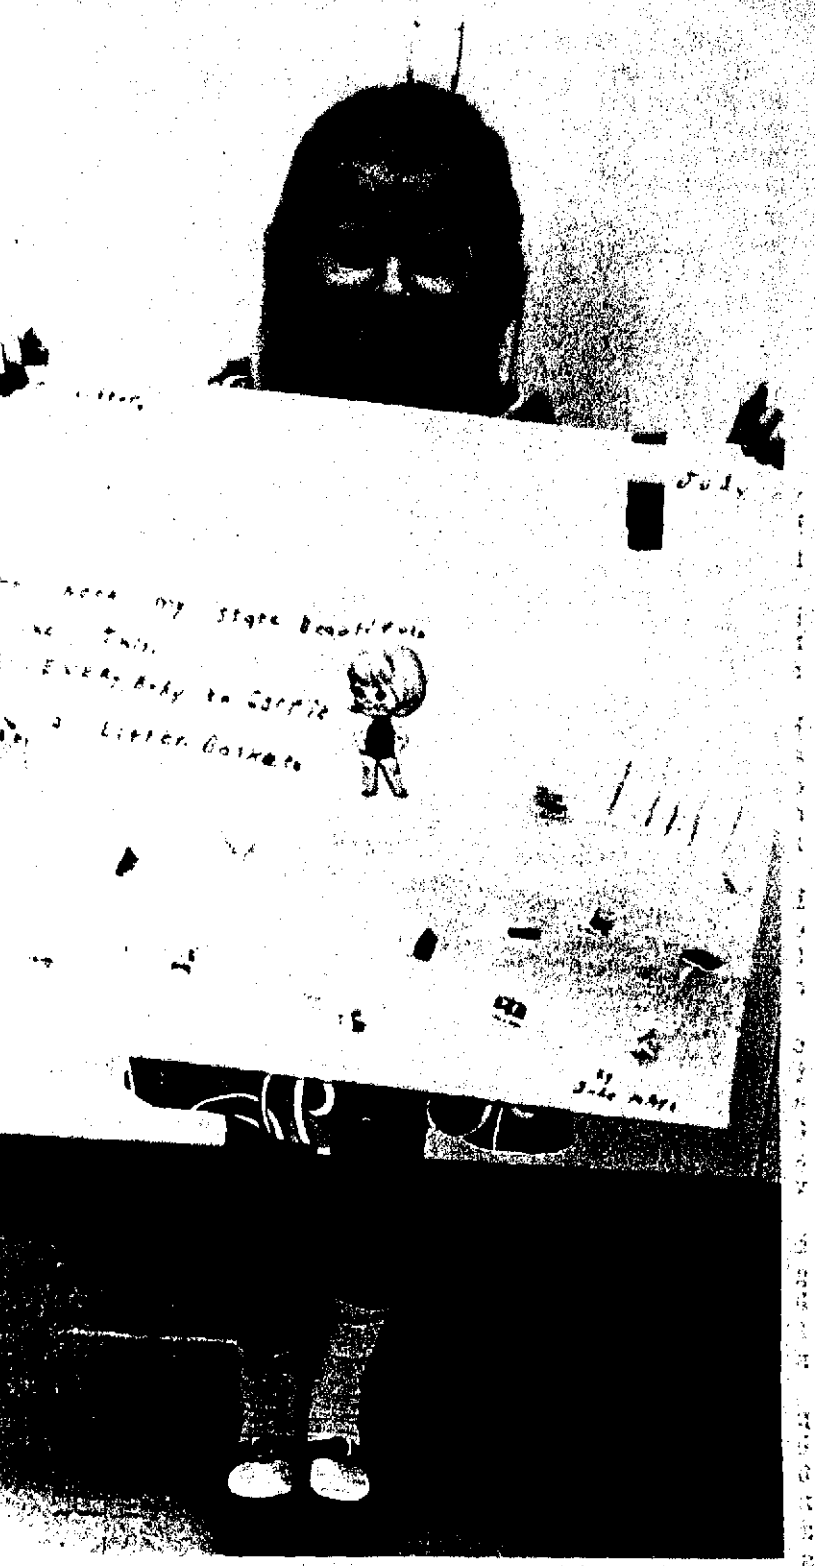

Saturday's Indianapolis area forecast is for scattered showers or thundershowers.

Officials of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway haven't said what they will do if Saturday's and Sunday's trials are rained out.

If the trials are rain-postponed, qualification runs could be attempted almost up to the starting time of Thursday's race.

Tiger Spots Foster About Everything

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Dick Tiger spots towering Bob Foster age, height, weight and reach but not in heart tonight when they clash in a 15-round title fight at Madison Square Garden.

Foster's physical advantages and his punching power have combined to make the 29-year-old challenger from Washington, a 12-5 favorite over the 38-year-old defender from the Republic of Biafra. The odds could go down by fight time.

The bout is scheduled for 9:30 p.m., EDT. It will be telecast in some areas of the nation by Sports Network, New York will be blacked out of the telecast.

The Garden hopes for a crowd of 15,000 and a gate of $150,000, which would get both Foster and the promotion off the financial hook. Foster has taken 60 per cent of the net gate and television and guaranteed Tiger $100,000 out of his percentage. He may wind up fighting for nothing.

"It doesn't matter," said Foster. "The main thing is the title. It's make or break. If I blow this, I may never get another chance. I don't intend to blow it. He'll go in four or five rounds, or the first time I get him."

"The first four rounds will be the most dangerous," said the Chickie Ferrara, Tiger's trainer. "If Dick gets by that he will come on. He has the biggest heart of any fighter I ever saw. He will chop Foster down with his body punches."

Foster has these advantages over Tiger: height—6-foot-3½ to 5-8; reach—79 inches to 71, and weight—about 175 to 167.

The former Air Force champion and ex-bomb factory worker has a 29-4 record, including 23 knockouts.

Girl Tennis Amateurs May Pull Upsets

By GEOFFREY MILLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

PARIS (AP) — The Federation Cup, the tennis tournament being fought out here by national women's teams, could spell danger for the four girl professionals of American promoter George MacCall.

The world's top amateur players are tuning up their game at the right time—ready to challenge the pros in next week's open French championships.

That will be the first time professional and amateur women's players have been matched against each other since open tennis was sanctioned.

MacCall's quartette—Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., Ann Jones of Britain, Françoise Durr of France and Rosemary Casals of San Francisco—will be the top seeds in the women's singles.

The Federation Cup went into the quarter-finals stage today, with the United States, Australia, Britain, South Africa, Russia, France, Bulgaria and the Netherlands still in contention.

Some girls are showing the kind of form that could upset the pros next week. Possible giant-killers are Nancy Richey of San Angelo, Tex., Mrs. Margaret Court of Australia, Mrs. Christine Janes of Britain and Anna Dimitrova of Russia.

Thursday, Miss Richey beat Anne Marie Stulder of Switzerland 6-1, 6-4 while Mrs. Court took Suzana Petersen of Brazil 6-0, 6-0. In other matches, Mary Ann Eisel of St. Louis beat Marianne Kindler of Switzerland 6-0, 6-1.

VETERAN STEWARDESS EVANSTON, III. (AP)

Mary Ellen O'Connor, who pioneered as an airline stewardess, is returning to nursing after 27 years at St. Francis Hospital.

From the time she graduated from the hospital's school of nursing in 1932, she has been on the go. She became known as the "fly-ingest woman in the world," and at one time was the "dean of stewardesses."

She retires from United Airlines in December 1968. Meanwhile, she is assisting in the hospital's emergency department on Saturdays and Sundays.

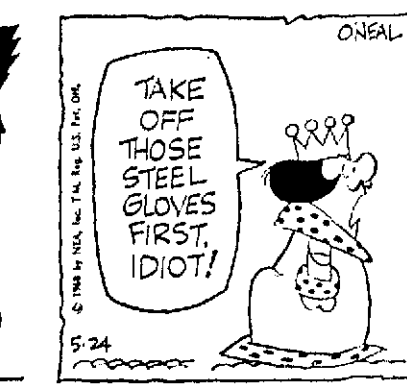

"I don't mind working at the hospital without a day off," she said, "because the work in the emergency room is so different from my full-time job at O'Hare International Airport. I couldn't stand to be inactive after the busy pace I've kept up all my life."

POLITICAL THEME interested these college students at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where signs of a new summer craze were evident. Armed with paintbrushes and dye, students painted their own designs on jeans, which they call "surf stokers."

Avoid Exposure to Sun To Get Rid of Freckles

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—Why does exposure to the sun cause freckles? How can one get rid of them?

A—The actinic rays of the sun mobilize the pigment in the deeper layers of the skin and brings it closer to the surface. When the process is evenly distributed you get a tan and when it is spotty you get freckles.

The best way to get rid of them is to avoid exposure to the sun. Cosmetic preparations that are supposed to remove freckles are not recommended because so often they irritate the skin and their effect is so temporary. Masking creams are preferable if the freckles are a real problem.

check with a skin specialist to make sure of the diagnosis. These lesions are sometimes a forerunner of skin cancer. If they are old-age freckles, a skin specialist can remove them with carbon dioxide snow or an electric needle.

Q—Two or three times a year I get severe choking attacks from swallowing I eat and drink carefully. How can I avoid these attacks and what should I do when they occur?

A—Eating and drinking are such automatic functions that no one can be consciously careful all the time. As a result, everyone gets an occasional choking spell. When this occurs keep calm. Remember the chances are you did not inhale nearly as much fluid as a drowning man yet even he can often be revived.

The cilia that line your windpipe are constantly sweeping any foreign matter that may be present up into your throat. Whacking you on the back will not help but, unless you have inhaled a chunk of food large enough to block your windpipe, you will recover in a minute or two.

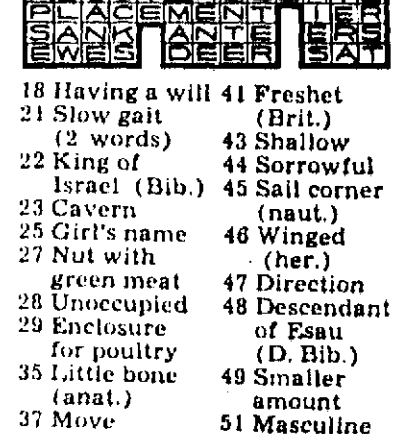

Q—Our daughter is engaged to a fine young man. His sister has cerebral palsy. Is this hereditary? Could he pass it on to our grandchildren?

A—Cerebral palsy is not a hereditary disease.

A Closer Walk With God

Will Lead You Right Straight to Church

The Years Ahead!

Up to now they've been reading about it. They have had a teacher to fall back on, but now they're in it. It's THEIR LITTLE RED WAGON FROM HERE ON. They must now make decisions. Their flour bin and their smokehouse will be only as full as they fill it. This is COMMENCEMENT DAY. They learned in church that God promised bread only by the sweat of the brow. Unless they have learned to take prosperity without pride, and adversity without anguish, they are still unprepared. We pray they are ready for THE YEARS AHEAD.

Lincoln FFA Activities Are Outlined

By CYNTHIA HEARON
Reporter

The first month of the school year, was a very busy one, twenty-two (22) new members were added. Planning of the year's work headed the agenda, with the following activities being suggested: Mother's Appreciation Tea; Valentine Dance & Sing Ball; F.F.A. Queen Rally; National project of work; and several more. Mrs. Gladys Golsen is adviser.

Thirty-nine (39) F.F.A.'ers attend the District Federation, Henderson State College, Arkadelphia, Arkansas. Ernie Dell Scott, local Vice-President and Federation Treasurer was honored with the presentation of our guest speaker, Miss Sharon Ann Evans "Miss Arkansas 1967". Miss Evans urged each girl to be "the real you".

The month of November was geared toward initiation of new members. Also Chapter Project - "Our Neighbors Near & Far" - cards were sent to Servicemen, the aged and shut-ins.

The activities of December was one of our most successful. The Annual Mother's Appreciation Tea was held.

A joint program with the F.F.A. chapter was presented to a large crowd. A former local president Miss Erma Smith was guest speaker. She spoke from the Theme "Unlimited Opportunities". The students were challenged by Miss Smith to stay in school and prepare themselves for the many opportunities which awaits them. Miss Smith was highly appreciated by all.

Our Miss F.F.A. Queen for 67-68 Miss Janice Evans was crowned by the Principal Dr. L. W. Williamson. After the program the parents and friends went to the home economic cottage which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Everyone seemed to have enjoyed the entire event and many compliments were expressed.

After the holidays many other activities were carried out in regular chapter meetings. Class parties and mixed class activities. During the month of February our Annual Valentine Activity was presented. "A Dance and Sing Ball" was an event to be remembered. First, second and third place awards were given for singing. Janice Evans won first place; Ethel Thomas second; Cynthia Hearon third; for dancing Yulonda Fellows was first place winner, Patricia Williamson second place and Arletha Swift third place. Also during this month, Audrey Faye May was the recipient of the Betty Crocker award.

Our final affair was the dress revue. The theme was "Through the Looking Glass". Some fifty girls modeled garments made. The attendance was excellent and the stage setting very attractive.

The F.F.A. officers for 68-69 were installed at our last meeting. The interest of members was exceptionally good, each month the chairman of the social committee gave a gift to the girl holding the lucky number - nine gifts were given and two prizes for the girl finding the highest number of eggs at our Easter egg hunt activity.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our advisor, for her guidance, cooperation and dedicated service rendered. We hope as years pass on, others will appreciate good leadership and take time to express them to others.

We would also like to express our thanks to Miss Mary Louise Munn, F.F.A. president and the other officers we worked with to make our chapter a successful one.

The following members will attend The District Leadership Workshop June 4th, Arkadelphia, Arkansas: Janice Evans, Yulonda Fellows, Joyce Scoggins, Katie White, Linda Watson, Maple Golsen.

In yesterday's column we discussed the two spade response to one no-trump which shows both minor suits and any strength hand. Yesterday responder held one point. Today he holds eight high card points. Ordinarily he would simply bid three no-trump.

West would make his normal spade lead and the defense would collect five tricks before South could get around to cashing any clubs.

The artificial Jacoby two spade response asks South to rebid two no-trump with at least one and a half stoppers in each major. King-jack-small is the least holding that qualifies here. Otherwise, South rebids to three of his better minor.

The three club bid warns North away from three no-trump but he wants to make a further try for game and does so by bidding four clubs.

South could pass at this point but he has the right hand for going on. Since North has shown at least 10 minor suit cards South can count a maximum of one loser in the major suits and his good minor suit cards indicate that there won't be more than one loser there. In fact, South is ambitious enough to make a mild slam try. He does this by bidding four hearts. This can't be an attempt to get to a heart contract and must be read as a club slam try.

North looks at his eight points, refuses the invitation and closes the bidding at five clubs. Strangely enough the spade lead allows South to make 12 tricks. He takes his ace of spades and knocks out the ace of clubs. It doesn't matter what West does at this stage. South will draw the rest of the trumps and discard his 10 and eight of hearts on dummy's long diamonds.

The slam will have been missed but North and South will have avoided getting set at three no-trump. (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Took Some Doing to Regain Road

COOS BAY, Ore. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Marino of Medford, Ore., couldn't get their car going, and it took two Coast Guard ships, a tugboat and a log puller to get them back on the road.

The Marinos were driving their amphibious car on Coos Bay last week when it got stuck on a mud flat. The boats pulled it free, and the Marinos put-pulled across the bay, up a boat ramp and onto the highway.

Dirksen Fails to Keep Board for Subversives

By ROBERT T. GRAY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen has lost another round in his dogged bid to keep the moribund Subversive Activities Control Board alive beyond this year.

A desk-thumping, shouting speech in which Dirksen suggested he had backing from President Johnson and rallied to rally enough Senate support for the Illinois Republican's cause.

Dirksen had proposed a crime control bill amendment that would allow the attorneys-general of each of the 50 states to prosecute alleged subversive organizations before the board.

But amid opponents' complaints that the precedent-shattering approach went too far, the Senate turned him down, 49 to 27.

The board was the subject of widespread publicity last year with the disclosure it had not handled any business for nearly two years.

Its five members each draw

$26,000 a year.

The agency was spotlighted in mid-1967 when it was learned that the latest appointee was a 29-year-old accountant, Simon F. McHugh Jr., who had married one of President Johnson's secretaries.

That development prompted inquiries into the board's operations. When its inactive status was disclosed, cries arose in Congress for its abolition.

But Dirksen moved to preserve it. He finally won approval of a measure providing that it continue in operation provided at least one case was brought before it by next Dec. 31.

Otherwise, it would go out of business next June 30.

The agency was set up 17 years ago during the anti-Communist activity sparked by the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, R-Wis.

Its original authority was to identify subversives and subversive organizations and compel them to register.

But Supreme Court decisions have stricken most of the basic authority of the agency.

S. Vietnam Desertions Hit Record

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hamlet security and enemy defections in South Vietnam hit new lows while Communist infiltration and South Vietnamese army desertions rose to record highs in March, says a Senate Foreign Relations Committee private analysis of secret Defense Department war statistics.

The document, dated May 13 and obtained Thursday by The Associated Press, said the percentage of hamlets secured was lower in March than anytime in the past two years.

The period covered by the statistics followed the January-February Communist Tet offensive and preceded President Johnson's March 31 peace initiative.

Carl Marcy, chief of staff for the Foreign Relations Committee, prepared the report for committee members. He said he did not include the figures on which it is based because they are classified.

Ambassador Robert W. Komer, in charge of the U.S. pacification effort in Vietnam, ac-knowledgeed in a March 28 interview with the AP that "we unquestionably suffered a real setback" in the Tet offensive.

He said, however, that only about 200 of some 8,500 hamlets with a degree of government presence had reverted to Viet Cong control.

A Komer report made public May 13 referred to the "painfully slow but apparently steady recovery of the pacification momentum" since March.

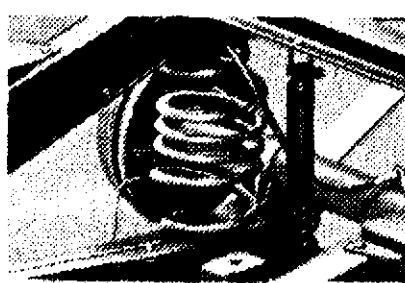

Several members of the Foreign Relations Committee, including Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., have long criticized U.S. war policy.

Property Transfer Tax Fails

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas House Thursday to show its discontent with any documentary stamp tax on the transfer of real property.

The lower chamber, for the fifth time in less than two years, rejected the proposal shortly after it passed without a dissenting vote a bill giving the state Racing Commission greater authority to investigate the Southern Racing Corp. at West Memphis.

The vote on the tax proposal was 24-66. The Senate passed three bills, including one that would allow the state Board of Finance to invest up to $5 million in the First Arkansas Industrial Finance Corp., a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting industry.

Meanwhile, most of the controversial measures remained locked up in committee as the two chambers returned to work at 10 a.m. today. However, the House dealings with a real estate transfer tax has not yet ended. Rep. George Nowotny of Fort Smith introduced late Wednesday a bill similar to the administration measure.

The only difference in Nowotny's proposal and that of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller is in the distribution of revenues. Rockefeller had earmarked all of it for the state penitentiary until such time as the prisons had collected $1.8 million through this and other measures in the special session.

Nowotny's bill provides 50 per cent of the money for the pen-

All Male Amateur Chefs Should Be Forbidden by Law to Use Garlic

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

More men than women today seem to want to learn how to cook well. The trouble with these kitchen cutups is that they think any dish can be made better by tossing in another spice, throwing in another herb. For the enduring welfare of one of our great natural resources, the American stomach, all male amateur chefs should be forbidden by law to use garlic in the preparation of any meal until they have been cooking for at least three years.

Show me a human being who plants roses but tears up dandelions and I'll show you a person with a mixed-up sense of values. He is one who prefers gilt to gold, romance to honest realism. A rose offers scent and beauty but threatens you with thorns. A dandelion, however, is an example of beauty in serviceable harness. Every part of
